JANESVILLE EMPLOYMENT NON-DISCRIMINATION ORDINANCE

City of Janesville Ordinance 2016-636 created Chapter 9.07.030(B) of the Code of General Ordinances, requiring that all employers of five or more individuals shall post this notice in a conspicuous place upon its premises.

It is unlawful for an employer of five or more individuals to discriminate in employment against an individual based upon the individual's gender identity or gender expression as well as other bases as provided in the ordinance. Gender identity or gender expression means a person's gender-related self-identity, appearance, expression, or behavior, regardless of the person's assigned sex at birth.

For a copy of the ordinance please visit the City of Janesville website at <http://www.ci.janesville.wi.us/ordinance> and locate Chapter 9.07.
